

Shriver
Center on Poverty
Law

For economic and racial justice

SEPTEMBER 22, 2022

Homecoming Gala

JUSTICE REIMAGINED

The fight for economic and racial justice — and our need to work together — has never been more urgent. Join us as we reconnect, reimagine a just future for all, and renew our commitment to a nation free from racism and poverty.

Register online at povertylaw.org/homecoming

Thursday, September 22, 2022

5:30 – 8:00 PM

Sheraton Grand Chicago Riverwalk

301 E. North Water St.

Chicago, IL 60611

Attire: Business casual

To ensure the health and safety of all attendees, full vaccination against COVID-19 or a negative test within 24 hours is required.

Parking is available in the parking garage. Proceed to the lobby and follow the signs to the ballroom promenade.

povertylaw.org/homecoming

Shriver
Center on Poverty
Law

Featured Speaker: Luvvie Ajayi Jones

Luvvie Ajayi Jones is an internationally recognized speaker whose leadership on culture, authenticity, and disruption enables transformative action. Her renowned TED Talk, “Get Comfortable with Being Uncomfortable,” has over 8 million views and has placed her in the top 1% of TED Talks of all time. Luvvie is the host of a podcast of the same name as her best-selling book, Professional Troublemaker. Born in Nigeria, and bred in Chicago, Luvvie will share ways we can take action, cause good trouble, and lead courageous lives driven by conviction, humor, and honesty.

Special Guest DJ: The King of House Music — Farley “Jackmaster” Funk

Sponsors

- Platinum
- Golden
- Silver
- Partners
 -
- Ally
- Contributors
 -
 -
 -

Host Committee

- Co-Chairs
 - Monique Howery
Counsel, Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila LLP
 - Annie Wallis
Partner, Sidley Austin LLP
- Committee Members
 - Debbie & David Chizewer
 - Harlene Ellin & Michael Cramer
 - Steve & Amy Eppler-Epstein
 - Case Hoogendoorn
- Lisa Madigan & Pat Byrnes
 - Charity Murow
 - Tom Reuland & Lana Gersten
 - Raj & Neeta Vohra
 - Lauren Worssek & Paul Varnado

For economic and racial justice

67 E. MADISON ST., SUITE 2000, CHICAGO, IL 60603